

Paris, December 1st 2017

29th International URTI Radio Grand Prix

The Jury of the 29th International URTI Radio Grand Prix met in Brussels (Belgium), at the kind invitation of the RTBF, on November 30th and December 1st 2017 to draw up the prize list of this year on the theme of “REBORN AFTER...” with 23 countries in competition.

Grand Prix: REBORN AFTER HELL

Directed by Dan-Eugen Vasiliu

Romanian Radio, Romania

- Silver Medal: NYOS: LA RENAISSANCE EN MARCHÉ
Directed by Pouth Pouth Serge Bertrand
Cameroon Radio Television (CRTV), Cameroon
- Bronze Medal: MES ANNÉES BOUM, UNE ENQUÊTE ALGÉRIENNE
A radio series written and produced by Adila Bennedjâi-Zou
Directed by Marie Plaçais and Emmanuel Geoffroy
Radio France, France Culture, France
- Jacques Matthey-Doret Award for Discovery: THE REBIRTH OF RIVER VARATTAR
Directed by Leelamma Mathew
All India Radio, India

In 2017, the winner of the Radio GRAND PRIX will get a 500 dollar reward.

Finalists:

- Until the sun comes up - Caroline Berliner - Le Bruit et la fureur/FACR/ACSR
Wallonie-Bruxelles International/FOKAL - Belgium
- La Renaissance du Leda - Iya Acham Alim - CRTV - Cameroon
- Les métamorphoses selon Guy-Marcel et Gabriel - Caroline Gillet et Flora Bernard
Radio France, France Inter, France
- It blows against it... refugee stories - Maria Nikolaou - ERT Komotinis - Greece
- Les Petits Voisins du Soleil - Sofia Fagroud - SNRT, Radio Chaîne Inter - Morocco
- To return - Katinka Baehr - NTR Radio Doc - Netherlands

Created in 1949, URTI is the first radiobroadcaster organization with a global perspective. This union coordinates the exchanges of programmes free of rights between its members, manages creation or training workshops and organises the International Radio and TV Author's Documentary Grand Prix.